Conference: Marriage and Family at the Heart of the Parish

The Council for Marriage and the Family of the Irish Bishops' Conference will host a one-day conference on Saturday 14 June on the theme 'Marriage and Family at the Heart of the Parish'. The conference is offered to leaders in parishes and dioceses, and others exercising faith and pastoral leadership, including parents, grandparents, teachers, members of parish pastoral councils as well as other groups and organisations serving the Church's mission. The conference seeks to (i) explore the pastoral challenges to the family in the context of evangelisation, (ii) explore how the parish community supports families in their Christian calling to share their faith and (iii) inform the work of the Council for Marriage and the Family.

Keynote speaker will be Archbishop Diarmuid Martin, Archbishop of Dublin. Also speaking will be Bishop Liam MacDaid, Bishop of Clogher and Chair of the Council for Marriage and the Family, Dr Tony Fahey, Professor of Social Policy, School of Applied Social Science, UCD and Colette Furlong, Catechist with Sligo Parishes. Booking for the conference can be made by email to the following address: cmfconference@iecon.ie or by calling 087 622 0349.

Vocations Sunday 2014

The World Day of Prayer for Vocations will be celebrated on Sunday 11 May 2014 on the theme 'Vocations: Witness to the Truth'. The Council for Vocations of the Irish Bishops' Conference has made available new video and text resources for Vocations Sunday which include a new 'Day in the Life' series following five people in their different vocations to priesthood and religious life. Mass will be broadcast from RTÉ's Donnybrook studios for Vocations Sunday. The celebrant will be the new Bishop of Derry, Bishop Donal McKeown. See www.vocations.ie for more information on these resources and the Vocations Sunday Mass.
