Catholic Schools Week 2015: 'Catholic Schools: Called to Serve'

Catholic Schools Week is an all-Ireland annual event which invites Catholic schools to give expression in a special way to a particular aspect of Catholic education. The theme of Catholic Schools Week 2015 is 'Catholic Schools: Called to Serve' and this complements 2015 being the Year of Consecrated Life.

Catholic schools place at the centre of their ethos an identity with the mission of Jesus Christ, who continually calls all who hear his voice to serve.

Serve, as a word, is a call to action. As a concept, service is an integral element of Jesus' mission in the Gospels. Education is a platform from which all are called to serve – parents, teachers, students, community and the wider world.

To open Catholic Schools Week 2015 Bishop Donal McKeown, Bishop of Derry, will celebrate 10.15am Mass on 25 January in Saint Mary's Church, Creggan, which will be broadcast by BBC Radio Ulster. Catholic Schools Week will conclude on 1 February with Mass broadcast at 11.00am by RTÉ One Television with pupils from Saint Ultan's, Cherry Orchard in Dublin.
