EASTER DAWN MASS

Why a dawn mass? We read in Luke's Gospel. "At the first sign of dawn the women went to the tomb... He is not here; He has risen." We too will go this Easter Morning to be the first to greet the Risen Christ.

This Mass will begin in the dark and dawn will come around the time of the Consecration in the Mass. It is in the open air. You will be standing and the Temperature may be around zero - 6C. with a 35% chance of Rain. Be prepared if you want to be there. The Mass will last about 40 minutes.

This Mass will be celebrated near the top of Benbradagh Mountain. We will also have a Large Cross and a Pascal Fire, powerful symbol of the Resurrection.

We will give you details in a few weeks about exact time and parking arrangements.
