THE CHURCH, MOTHER OF VOCATIONS. Pope Francis Message For Vocations Sunday 2016 - All the baptized may experience the joy of belonging to the Church and rediscover that the Christian vocation, just like every particular vocation, is born from within the People of God, and is a gift of divine mercy. We give thanks for the role of the community in each person's vocational journey. Each vocation in the Church has its origin in the compassionate gaze of Jesus. God calls us to become a part of the Church and, after we have reached a certain maturity within it, he bestows on us a specific vocation. The vocational journey is undertaken together with the brothers and sisters whom the Lord has given to us. Vocations are born within the Church, in this way, the community becomes the home and the family where vocations are born. Vocations grow within the Church; vocations are sustained by the Church. Communities of faith can become, after the example of the Blessed Virgin Mary, like a mother's womb which welcomes the gift of the Holy Spirit (cf. Lk 1: 35-38). The motherhood of the Church finds expression in constant prayer for vocations and in the work of educating and accompanying all those who perceive God's call. We ask the Lord to grant to all those who are on a vocational journey a deep sense of belonging to the Church; and that the Holy Spirit may strengthen among Pastors, and all of the faithful, a deeper sense of communion, discernment and spiritual fatherhood and motherhood.
