MORNING PRAYER

Confidence – Lord Jesus, as I begin a new day I remember that you are risen for the dead,
breaking the bonds of sin and death.
And so I look to the future with confidence.

Wonder – Think of the love that God and Father has lavished on us by letting us be called God’s children fills me with wonder and joy.

Presence – Christ be my life and my only way,
Christ be my light by night and by day,
Christ be my faithful friend,
Christ be my guide and support.

Direction – May I be in tune with Jesus my Saviour as a harp is with its strings
and thereby make sweet music to the glory of God in the way I live my life.

Gratitude – It is good to give thanks to the Lord,
To make music to your name, O Most High,
to proclaim your love each morning,
And your help throughout day.

Hope – Grant that my life and all that I do may be pleasing to you, Lord Jesus, and bear witness to the power of your redeeming love.

PRAYER

Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin

Our Father, through the loving intercession of Sts. Louis and Zélie Martin,

I ask for protection against all senile dementia and Alzheimer’s disease.
Heavenly Father, God almighty, your presence brings healing, wholeness and holiness.

I ask You to heal those who are taken from their families through mental deterioration.

You make all things new (Rev 21:5).
You created us because You love us.

Do not abandon us in the Autumn of our years when we are getting to know You better and only wish to pass on this wisdom to the children and grandchildren.

Look on us with pity, we who are parents; from You, Father, all parenthood comes.

Bless us always with sound mental health.

You say, ‘My faithful love will never leave you’ (Is 54:10).

Father, my You be known, loved and honoured with a special devotion.
Amen.
