

The trial before Pilate.

In the Name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit. Amen

Lord Jesus, when you were brought before Pilate, he asked you a question, "What is truth?". Pilate denied the truth and failed to recognise you. In today's world, it is sometimes difficult for us to recognise the truth. But, You have said, "I am the Way, the Truth and the life". As we reflect on your word today help us to always be open to the truth. Give us the courage and strength to stand up for the truth, for what is morally right, even in the face of criticism and rejection. Help us to know the fullness of your truth and to be witnesses of that truth, guiding others in a gentle and loving way. We ask this through Christ, Our Lord. Amen

Gospel Reading John 18:33-19:3

So Pilate went back into the Praetorium and called Jesus to him and asked him, 'Are you the king of the Jews?' Jesus replied, 'Do you ask this of your own accord, or have others said it to you about me?' Pilate answered, 'Am I a Jew? It is your own people and the chief priests who have handed you over to me: what have you done?' Jesus replied, 'Mine is not a kingdom of this world; if my kingdom were of this world, my men would have fought to prevent my being surrendered to the Jews. As it is, my kingdom does not belong here.' Pilate said, 'So, then you are a king?' Jesus answered, 'It is you who say that I am a king. I was born for this, I came into the world for this, to bear witness to the truth; and all who are on the side of truth listen to my voice.' 'Truth?' said Pilate. 'What is that?' And so saying he went out again to the Jews and said, 'I find no case against him. But according to a custom of yours I should release one prisoner at the Passover; would you like me, then, to release for you the king of the Jews?' At this they shouted, 'Not this man,' they said, 'but Barabbas.' Barabbas was a bandit. Pilate then had Jesus taken away and scourged; and after this, the soldiers twisted some thorns into a crown and put it on his head and dressed him in a purple robe. '

St John Paul II, in the opening words of the encyclical Veritatis Splendor wrote;

"The splendour of truth shines forth in all the works of the Creator and, in a special way, in man, created in the image and likeness of God (cf. Gen 1:26).

Truth enlightens man's intelligence and shapes his freedom, leading him to know and love the Lord. Hence the Psalmist prays: "Let the light of your face shine on us, O Lord" (Ps 4:6)."

St Paul, in his letter to the Corinthians, emboldens his followers to set their minds on the higher gifts and to live out their lives in love and truth so that they do not become a mere gong booming or a cymbal clashing.

'Love is always patient and kind: love is never jealous; love is not boastful or conceited, it is never rude and never seeks its own advantage, it does not take offense or store up grievances. Love does not rejoice at wrongdoing, but finds its joy in the truth.'
(1 Corinthians 13:4-6)
